EUCCHARISTIC MEDITATION

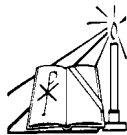

“It is important to consider what the Synod Fathers described as Eucharistic consistency, a quality which our lives are objectively called to embody. Worship pleasing to God can never be a purely private matter, without consequences for our relationships with others: it demands a public witness to our faith.

“Evidently, this is true for all the baptized, yet it is especially incumbent upon those who, by virtue of their social or political position, must make decisions regarding fundamental values, such as respect for human life, its defense from conception to natural death, the family built upon marriage between a man and a woman, the freedom to educate one's children and the promotion of the common good in all its forms. These values are not negotiable....Bishops are bound to reaffirm constantly these values as part of their responsibility to the flock entrusted to them.”

A VOCATION VISTA

A basic principle of faith: prior to and beyond our projects there is a mystery of love which surrounds and guides us: the mystery of God's love. If we want to give good direction to our life, we must learn to discern its plan, by reading the mysterious “road signs” God puts in our daily history. For this purpose neither horoscopes nor fortune-telling is useful. What is needed is prayer, authentic prayer, which should always accompany a life decision made in conformity with God's law.

TIME, TALENT & TREASURE

Living and Giving Gratefully

This Week's Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel, we hear that a number of Jesus' followers left him because his message was too difficult for them to accept. In essence, they did not believe in him. He then asked the Twelve if they wished to leave as well. Peter responds by making a profound profession of faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior. The Twelve made a choice and stood by their choice, remaining loyal to their commitment to Jesus. A good question for our reflection might be this: Are we satisfied with the stewardship we exercise over our baptismal commitment? Are we just "along for the ride?" Are we keeping Christ in front of us as we make decisions about our daily activities, our relationships, our parish, issues in the workplace, issues such as peace and justice? What is the quality of our stewardship?

THE YEAR FOR PRIESTS

The quality of the priest's life and ministry, for the completion of a fruitful mission, also depends upon his witness to the radicalism of evangelical demands and counsels. It is a matter of a consistent style of life in the setting where he exercises his priestly ministry. This is born out in a life marked by apostolic obedience, evangelical poverty, chastity in consecrated celibacy, and priestly unity with the diocesan bishop - "with Peter and under Peter."

INVENTOR OF IDEAS AND FORMS

"St Augustine: This man of passion and faith, of the highest intelligence and tireless in his pastoral care, a great Saint and Doctor of the Church is often known, at least by hearsay, even by those who ignore Christianity or who are not familiar with it, because he left a very deep mark on the cultural life of the West and on the whole world. Because of his special importance St Augustine's influence was widespread.

"A civilization has seldom encountered such a great spirit who was able to assimilate Christianity's values and exalt its intrinsic wealth, inventing ideas and forms that were to nourish the future generations, as Paul VI also stressed: 'It may be said that all the thought-currents of the past meet in his works and form the source which provides the whole doctrinal tradition of succeeding ages' (Inaugural Address at the Patristic Institute of the 'Augustinianum', 4 May 1970; L'Osservatore Romano English edition, 21 May 1970, p. 8). Augustine is also the Father of the Church who left the greatest number of works."

FAITH FORMATION, 2009-2010

Welcome to Faith Formation for another year. We begin today, August 23, after the 9:00AM Mass in the Undercroft. Students meet weekly at 10:10AM in the Undercroft and are dismissed from the Media Center in the Office building at 11:20AM.

Children who are already registered for 2009-2010 will find their new texts in the classroom today. If your child is not registered for this year, please do so today, in the Undercroft, after the 9:00AM Mass. All children registering today will need to pick up their texts before going to their classroom.

THANKS AND INVITATION

We are very grateful to our volunteer catechists and helpers for Faith Formation. If you are interested in helping in any way--as helper, catechist or R.C.I.A. team member--please contact Sr. Therese Francis at 852-8424. Thank you!

CATHEDRAL CHOIR MINISTRY

The Adult Choir will begin rehearsing for the Fall and Winter seasons on Thursday, August 27, at 6:00PM in church. Please always use the ramp entrance. We invite all parishioners to consider participating in choir ministry. Choir ministry, while it may have its challenges, is a very fulfilling ministry. The melodies and words that we sing uplift our spirits and, we hope, the spirits of those to whom we minister - you the parishioners of St. Stephen Cathedral. If the music and ministry we provide has touched you deeply, then you may want to consider becoming a part of the Choir. Please call Michael Conley at 683-6525, or e-mail him at mike.conley@pastoral.org. May God bless you as you prayerfully consider Choir Ministry.

WORD OF LIFE

The twentieth century often tried to do without that cornerstone (Christ), and attempted to build the city of man without reference to Him. It ended by actually building that city against man! Christians know that it is not possible to reject or ignore God without demeaning man. Allow me, dear young people, to consign this hope of mine to you: you must be those "builders"! You are the men and women of tomorrow. The future is in your hearts and in your hands. God is entrusting to you the task, at once difficult and uplifting, of working with him in the building of the civilization of love.

~Pope John Paul II

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES AND TRAINING

We are in great need of more people to participate in the liturgical ministries of Altar Servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers at the Altar, Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick and Homebound, and Children's Liturgy of the Word Leaders. There are very few "active" ministers scheduled for the 5:00PM Saturday evening Mass, or the 7:00AM or 11:00AM Sunday morning Masses. Most of our "active" ministers are scheduled for the 9:00AM Sunday Mass. Please take the time to consider and pray about whether God is calling you to respond to this invitation to ministry. Your time and talent are needed.

Training sessions for our Liturgical Ministries have been scheduled for Sunday, September 20, and Sunday, October 4, with both sessions following the 11:00AM Mass. We are requesting that all those currently performing a liturgical ministry, as well as those newly signed-up, be present for one of these two sessions. Please call Michael Conley (852-8425) or e-mail him at (mike.conley@pastoral.org) to inform him of which session you will be attending so that refreshments may be provided.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Liturgy of the Word for Children Leaders and Helpers: please pick up your envelopes from the table at the main entrance of the church. The new schedule is out for September through November. New volunteers will be contacted for orientation.

ANNIVERSARY APPRECIATION DINNER

At the Masses on the weekend of September 5/6, the parish of St. Stephen Cathedral will celebrate the 83rd Anniversary of its dedication. For our parish, this celebration is a solemnity and overrides the observance of the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. As part of the celebration for that weekend, we will hold our Annual Parish Appreciation Dinner in the Undercroft following the 11:00AM Mass. The Daviess County Pork Producers will cater for us. Reservation forms will be in the church pews. Please return this form by way of the collection basket or bring it by the Parish Office. Hope to see you there!

MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH PICNIC

The 39th annual Mount Saint Joseph Picnic will be Sunday, September 13, at Maple Mount, KY. Booths open at 10:30AM. Barbecue chicken, mutton and pork served from 11:30AM to 2:00PM. Burgoo and sandwiches also available. Grand prizes: $3,000, $1,000, $500, a quilt, a wall mirror, and a ham. Tickets are $2. The popular silent auction, yard sale, holiday décor, and mystery gift booths will be there, along with a crafts booth, a cake wheel, ice cream, bingo, and pull tabs. Children can enjoy inflatables, face painting, the fish pond, and other games. Picnic proceeds benefit retired Ursuline Sisters. To volunteer or to order raffle tickets, call 229-4103 ext. 278.

CROCHET INSTRUCTOR NEEDED

Dismas House is in need of a volunteer to teach residents how to crochet. The class is currently held on Thursday evenings from 7:30-9:00PM, but Dismas is willing to look at other days and times if needed. All of the yarn, patterns, and hooks will be provided. The ladies really enjoy this as a past time and would like to continue this class. For more information, contact Christy Kraus or Holly Munoz at 685-6054.

GLENMARY SISTERS PILGRIMAGE/CRUISE

THE WORD OF GOD

The word of God is at work in you

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Generally speaking, Christians are aware of the centrality of the Person of Jesus Christ in the Revelation of God. However, they do not always know the important underlying reasons, nor do they understand in what sense Jesus is at the heart of the Word of God. Consequently, when they read the Bible, they are at a loss in making it a truly Christian reading.

PUMPKINFEST BAKE-OFF

The fourth annual Owensboro Pumpkinfest Bake-Off by the Glenmary Sisters is Sunday, September 27. To enter the Bake-Off, go to www.owensboropumpkinfest.org or call 685-2614 for more details. Deadline for entries is September 18.

RIGHT TO LIFE OF OWENSBORO WALK FOR LIFE
