EUCCHARISTIC MEDITATION

“At the Last Supper, Jesus entrusts to his disciples the sacrament which makes present his self-sacrifice for the salvation of us all, in obedience to the Father’s will. We cannot approach the Eucharistic table without being drawn into the mission which, beginning in the very heart of God, is meant to reach all people. Missionary outreach is thus an essential part of the Eucharistic form of the Christian life.

“The first and fundamental mission that we receive from the sacred mysteries we celebrate is that of bearing witness by our lives. The wonder we experience at the gift God has made to us in Christ gives new impulse to our lives and commits us to becoming witnesses of his love. We become witnesses when, through our actions, words and way of being, Another makes himself present. Witness could be described as the means by which the truth of God’s love comes to men and women in history, inviting them to accept freely this radical newness. Through witness, God lays himself open, one might say, to the risk of human freedom.”

A VOCATION VISTA

Hope is obligatory. Anyone who lives it travels in an atmosphere of trust and abandonment, saying with the psalmist: “Lord, you are my rock, my shield, my fortress, my refuge, my lamp, my shepherd, my salvation.” One is attached to three truths: God is almighty, God loves me immensely, God is faithful to promises. And it is he, the God of mercy, who kindles trust in me; so that I do not feel lonely, or useless, or abandoned, but involved in a destiny of salvation, which will lead to Paradise one day.

TIME, TALENT & TREASURE
Living and Giving Gratefully

This Week's Stewardship Moment

St. James teaches that those who are poor in the eyes of society are the ones who have been chosen to inherit the Kingdom of God. Indeed, we are saved because of our poverty; we are redeemed out of our need — not because of our material wealth or achievements that the world finds praiseworthy. St. James also suggests that we are stewards of others, especially the poor, and it is how we respond to the poor and needy that will define our relationship with the Lord. How do we respond to the less fortunate right within our own parish?

Parish Sacrificial Giving Summary
(Regular Sunday Offertory)

In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, parishioners and visitors made a joyful return to the Lord of $11,780.91 in the Sunday Offertory for the Weekend of August 29 and August 30, which included $56.16 from "Kid's Care." Our parish received an additional $3,816.83 on September 1 from Electronic Fund Transfers.

THE YEAR FOR PRIESTS

The priest, as pastor, is not only consecrated for a diocese. He is consecrated for the salvation of the whole world (Ad Gentes, n. 38). For this, he must be available for the mission ad gentes beyond the borders and limits of diocese and even of country. The mission ad gentes manifests in a fitting way the gift and gratuity of the Church. It aids those who are in spiritual and material need. It expresses growth toward maturity of faith. One goes beyond the temptation to rely on oneself.

"DECENT WORK"

"On May 1, 2000, on the occasion of the Jubilee of Workers, my venerable predecessor Pope John Paul II issued an appeal for a global coalition in favor of "decent work" supporting the strategy of the International Labor Organization. In this way, he gave a strong moral impetus to this objective, seeing it as an aspiration of families in every country of the world. What is meant by the word 'decent' in regard to work? It means work that expresses the essential dignity of every man and woman in the context of their particular society: work that is freely chosen, effectively associating workers, both men and women, with the development of their community; work that enables the worker to be respected and free from any form of discrimination; work that makes it possible for families to meet their needs and provide schooling for their children, without the children themselves being forced into labor; work that permits the workers to organize themselves freely, and to make their voices heard; work that leaves enough room for rediscovering one's roots at a personal, familial and spiritual level; work that guarantees those who have retired a decent standard of living."

INQUIRY SESSIONS

Inquiry Sessions will begin Wednesday, September 9, at 6:00PM in the Media Center for anyone interested in the Catholic faith. If you know of anyone who might want to know about what it means to be Catholic, please ask him/her to call Sr. Therese Francis at 852-8424. Sessions will continue on Wednesdays, September 16, 23 and 30.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION

There will be Parent Meetings for those whose children are preparing for the sacraments. Please bring baptismal certificate if your child was not baptized at St. Stephen Cathedral. Both meetings are at 6:30PM in Undercroft:

- Monday, September 21: Sacrament of Reconciliation/Penance.
- Monday, September 28: Sacrament of Confirmation.

CATECHISTS MEETING

There will be a meeting for catechists after Faith Formation class on Sunday, September 13, in the Media Center.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH

church and it is the church of all the people of God entrusted to his pastoral care."

Cardinal Edward Cassidy, "Homily," November 29, 2003

PICNIC EVENING MASS

On Saturday, September 19, the day of our Sixth Annual Picnic, we will celebrate the evening Mass, at 6:00PM. This is to accommodate the picnic workers.

WORD OF LIFE

In order to protect nature, it is not enough to intervene with economic incentives or deterrents. The decisive issue is the overall moral tenor of society. If there is a lack of respect for the right to life and to a natural death, if human conception, gestation and birth are made artificial, if human embryos are sacrificed to research, the conscience of society ends up losing the concept of human ecology and, along with it, that of environmental ecology. It is contradictory to insist that future generations respect the natural environment when our educational systems and laws do not help them to respect themselves.

Pope Benedict XVI, "Caritas in Veritate," June 29, 2009

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES AND TRAINING

We are in great need of more people to participate in the liturgical ministries of Altar Servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers at the Altar, Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick and Homebound, and Children's Liturgy of the Word Leaders. There are very few "active" ministers scheduled for the 5:00PM Saturday evening Mass, or the 7:00AM or 11:00AM Sunday morning Masses. Most of our "active" ministers are scheduled for the 9:00AM Sunday Mass. Your time and talent are needed.

Training sessions for our Liturgical Ministries have been scheduled for Sunday, September 20, and Sunday, October 4, with both sessions following the 11:00AM Mass. We are requesting that all those currently performing a liturgical ministry, as well as those newly signed-up, be present for one of these two sessions. Please call Michael Conley (852-8425) or e-mail him at (mike.conley@pastoral.org) to inform him of which session you will be attending.

GLENMARY SISTERS PILGRIMAGE/CRUISE

Join Fr. John Vaughan, Spiritual Director for the Glenmary Sisters Pilgrimage/European Cruise 2010. A pre-cruise information program will be held in the Cathedral Undercroft on Tuesday, September 8, at 6:30PM. More information about this awe-inspiring twelve-night cruise with Royal Caribbean is available online at the Glenmary Sisters website www.glenmarysisters.org and at www.faithintravel.com or call 1-877-389-1002.

CATHEDRAL CHOIR MINISTRY

We invite all parishioners to consider participating in choir ministry. While it may have its challenges, this is a very fulfilling ministry. The melodies and words that we sing uplift our spirits and, we hope, the spirits of those to whom we minister - you the parishioners of St. Stephen Cathedral. If the music and ministry we provide has touched you deeply, then you may want to consider becoming a part of the Choir. Please call Michael Conley at 852-8425, or e-mail him at mike.conley@pastoral.org. May God bless you as you prayerfully consider Choir Ministry.

SCRIP IS ONLINE

SCRIP SUCCESS has expanded and there is now the ability to order on-line and even re-charge certain retailers on-line via shopwithscrip.com. As usual we can only be as successful as you help us to be. It is with this understanding that we put out this request for volunteer help in the SCRIP office. If you can volunteer one hour or one day, we can use you! Please contact Melba at 852-8033.

MARIAN RETREAT

“The Rosary” is the focus of an October 9-11 Marian Retreat at Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center. Led by Msgr. Bernard Powers, the Marian Retreat will cover Pope John Paul II's Apostolic Letter on the Rosary and how it relates to the wisdom, courage, and strength we need to deal with life's issues. Retreat includes opportunities for solitude and communal prayer and the Eucharist. Retreat begins 6:00PM Friday and ends 1:00PM Sunday. Fee is $175 for residents or $120 for commuters. (If paid by September 9, deduct 10%.) Contact Kathy McCarty at 229-0200, ext. 413 or kathy.mccarty@maplemount.org. Find a flyer online at www.mscenter.org

GOLF SCRAMBLE

Owensboro Catholic High School Baseball is hosting a Golf Scramble on Sunday, September 13, at Ben Hawes State Park. Shot-gun start at 8:00AM. Registration at 7:00AM. Prizes: 1st, 2nd, 7th, and next to last place. Special Events: Longest Putt on 18th hole and Closest to the Pin on all Par 3 holes. Cost: $50 per player. Bring your own foursome. Food and beverages provided. For more information, call Lynn Holland at 993-9603 or Mitchell Sims at 485-2725.

FEELING SPIRITUALLY ANEMIC?

Come join parishioners at Immaculate Parish for an eight-part bible study, “A Quick Journey Through the Bible” and hear God’s plan for you! This presentation, by Jeff Cavins, is designed to give a meaningful overview of salvation history. Each session will have a half-hour DVD presentation complemented by group discussion questions, useful maps and charts, and brief assignments for home study. Check out the preview video at: <http://greatadventureonline.com/information/home>. Classes start first week of October. Two sessions: Monday, 10:00-11:30AM; Thursday, 6:30-8:00PM. To register or for more information, please call Sharon Hart, 683-0394.

THE WORD OF GOD

The word of God is at work in you

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

“In a general sense, the Word of God is Christ-the-Word, who, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, is the key to all interpretation. “The Word of God, who was in the beginning with God, is not, in his fullness, much talk or a multiplicity of words; but a single Word, which embraces a great number of ideas (theoremata), each of which is a part of the Word in its entirety.”

PRAYER TO HOLY SPIRIT FOR OUR BISHOP

Let us continue to ask God’s guidance on the selection of our next bishop: “Veni, Sancte Spiritus! Come, Holy Spirit!”

WIN A STEELE STADIUM SKYBOX FOR A GAME
