EUCHARISTIC MEDITATION

"I wish to reiterate the concern expressed by the Synod Fathers about the grave difficulties affecting the mission of those Christian communities in areas where Christians are a minority or where they are denied religious freedom. We should surely give thanks to the Lord for all those Bishops, priests, consecrated persons and laity who devote themselves generously to the preaching of the Gospel and practice their faith at the risk of their lives. In not a few parts of the world, simply going to church represents a heroic witness that can result in marginalization and violence. Here too, I would like to reaffirm the solidarity of the whole Church with those who are denied freedom of worship.

"As we know, wherever religious freedom is lacking, people lack the most meaningful freedom of all, since it is through faith that men and women express their deepest decision about the ultimate meaning of their lives. Let us pray, therefore, for greater religious freedom in every nation, so that Christians, as well as the followers of other religions, can freely express their convictions, both as individuals and as communities."

A VOCATION VISTA

We are not slaves of the universe and of its laws, we are free. In ancient times, honest enquiring minds were aware of this. Heaven is not empty. Life is not a simple product of laws and the randomness of matter, but within everything and at the same time above everything, there is a personal will, there is a Spirit who in Jesus has revealed himself as Love.

Living and Giving Gratefully

This Week's Stewardship Moment

St. James warns against accepting the standards of the world and assuming that what is normative in society needs no countercultural challenge. The temptation to hoard riches and make sharp bargains at the expense of the powerless is pervasive because these things are generally done and look respectable enough. St. James points to God's judgment on these attitudes and actions of amassing wealth and comfort at the expense of others. How might we be better stewards of the material blessings we have been given?

Parish Sacrificial Giving Summary

Our parish received an additional $2,635.99 in Electronic Fund Transfers on September 16 and 17.

THE YEAR FOR PRIESTS

Even if certain priests are prepared for the mission ad gentes, all of them “need to have the mind and heart of missionaries —open to the needs of the Church and the world, with concern for those farthest away, and especially for the non-Christian groups in their own area” (Redemptoris Missio, n. 67).

CONFIRMATION CATECHISTS NEEDED

Would you like to be a team catechist for our students preparing for Confirmation this year? Please contact Sr. Therese Francis at 852-8424. Classes begin October 4.

THANK YOU

Amy and I, along with Meghan, Sarah, and Will, want to thank the parish for their prayers, cards, and best wishes during the past several weeks. We miss my Mom and Dad very much, but the kindness you have shown us has made the journey holy and so meaningful. We want to thank in particular Fr. John, Michael, and the choir for the beautiful liturgies and we thank all those that prepared food for lunch. We love all of you because it's you that makes St. Stephen Cathedral parish such a special and holy place.

Tom and Amy Payne and Family

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

There will be training for altar servers on Sunday, September 27 and October 4, following the 11:00AM Mass. (This training session is concurrent with all the liturgical ministry training.) We welcome all our new servers on board!

ANNUAL BLESSING of ANIMALS

The Church has a long tradition of Blessing Animals on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, October 4. Legend has it that Sr. Francis preached to the birds of the sky and the creatures of the forest, and they understood. Because of this relationship, we ask God to continue to bless his creation, even those "dumb" beasts. Because the feast day for St. Francis falls on a Sunday this year, it will not be celebrated in the liturgies of the day. However, we will have a Blessing of Animals on Saturday, October 3, following the 12:05PM Mass, in the front yard of the Rectory. We invite you to bring your family pets for this special blessing. May we always recognize God present in all of his creation.

WORD OF LIFE

To the tragic and widespread scourge of abortion we may well have to add in the future — indeed it is already surreptitiously present — the systematic eugenic programming of births. At the other end of the spectrum, a pro-euthanasia mindset is making inroads as an equally damaging assertion of control over life that under certain circumstances is deemed no longer worth living. Underlying these scenarios are cultural viewpoints that deny human dignity.

Pope Benedict XVI, "Caritas in Veritate," June 29, 2009

OUR OWN CREIGHTON METHOD INSTRUCTOR

Suzanne Padgett (along with Amanda Reffitt and Patricia Gutierrez) is now a certified Practitioner of the Creighton Model Fertility Care System. This has been an intense training program and we congratulate Suzanne for her dedication to life!

If you would like to help get information regarding the Creighton Method to all the parishes, please make a check to St. Stephen Cathedral and write Creighton on the memo line. If you have any questions, contact Amy Carrico at 925-1155.

PRESCHOOL DRINK POUCH BRIGADE

In an effort to be eco-friendly, the Cathedral Preschool is collecting Capri Sun type juice pouches. A company called TerraCycle makes these pouches into book bags, pencil cases, tote bags, etc. (Visit www.terracycle.net.) The Preschool will receive 2¢ for all types and brands of aluminum juice pouches. Optional cleaning instructions: Cut the top of the pouches, empty remaining juice, rinse with water and lay flat to dry. There is a box in the back of church for your contributions. Thank you!

SUNDAY EVENING, 6:00-8:00PM
Ages 14-30

REPORT ON THE MANDEVILLE COLLECTION

The Ash Wednesday collection for our Sister Diocese of Mandeville, Jamaica was a success thanks largely to your commitment to it. The Mandeville Diocese received $77,494.02. THE WORD OF GOD

The word of God is at work in you

© J. S. Patch Co., Inc.

God communicates his Word in many and various ways (cf. Heb 1:1). The history of Revelation is long and has a diversity of heralds, yet it is always characterized by a hierarchy in meaning and function. Consequently, it is right to speak of an analogous sense of the Word.
