EUCCHARISTIC MEDITATION

“The Eucharistic mystery gives rise to a service of charity towards neighbor, which ‘consists in the very fact that, in God and with God, I love even the person whom I do not like or even know. This can only take place on the basis of an intimate encounter with God, an encounter which has become a communion of will, affecting even my feelings. Then I learn to look on this other person not simply with my eyes and my feelings, but from the perspective of Jesus Christ.’

“In all those I meet, I recognize brothers or sisters for whom the Lord gave his life, loving them ‘to the end’ (Jn 13:1). Our communities, when they celebrate the Eucharist, must become ever more conscious that the sacrifice of Christ is for all, and that the Eucharist thus compels all who believe in him to become ‘bread that is broken’ for others, and to work for the building of a more just and fraternal world. Keeping in mind the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, we need to realize that Christ continues today to exhort his disciples to become personally engaged: ‘You yourselves, give them something to eat’ (Mt 14:16). Each of us is truly called, together with Jesus, to be bread broken for the life of the world.”

A VOCATION VISTA

Faith draws the future into the present, so that it is no longer simply a “not yet.” The fact that this future exists changes the present; the present is touched by the future reality, and thus the things of the future spill over into those of the present and those of the present into those of the future.

TIME, TALENT & TREASURE
Living and Giving Gratefully

This Week's Stewardship Moment

Jesus makes a dramatic statement regarding the rich in today's Gospel. We are all rich compared to most in the world. Our society causes us to occasionally develop a misplaced trust in our money and our possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity. When we seek security in at-risk things, like our possessions, we are vulnerable to anxiety and fear. As good stewards we know that our possessions must not possess us, lest they get in the way of our discipleship.

Parish Sacrificial Giving Summary
(Regular Sunday Offertory)

In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, parishioners and visitors made a joyful return to the Lord of $16,091.61 in the Sunday Offertory for the Weekend of October 3 and 4, which included $37.85 from "Kids Care." Our parish received an additional $6,563.88 in Electronic Fund Transfers on October 1 and 5.

THE YEAR FOR PRIESTS

The priestly consecration has as its inseparable mark the indelible character: a gift of God that is given forever! The priest anointed in the Holy Spirit ought to bind himself to absolute and unconditional fidelity to the Lord and to his Church, because the commitment of the priesthood has in itself the sign of eternity.

A LETTER OF INVITATION

Greetings All,

We met Sunday evening for our most recent time of Adoration at the Cathedral. The scripture reading was from Jeremiah 1:5-8; Andy Couch led the music. We had confession available, and people are becoming more and more relaxed in the presence of the Lord. It was a great time to come and pray. The music was great. The fellowship was outstanding. And the pizza was delicious.

There are so many other people that need to come and be a part of our ministry. Please take some time to invite someone around you. Although the time of adoration is directed to the youth, ages 14-30 - ALL ARE WELCOME!

Next week we will be meeting in the undercroft and we will be discussing Beauty. Also, I hope to make a short video then with the youth on Beauty.

God bless you all. Please pray for our work with the youth.

Yours,
Fr. Joshua

PRAYER FOR THE DECEASED

Please pray for those who have recently died especially Elizabeth Sweeten, grandmother of Laura Lewis.

Pray, also, for those who are in the process of dying. May the souls of all our beloved dead rest in God's peace and love.

WORD OF LIFE

Each person is called to love as friendship and self-giving. Each person is freed from the tendency to selfishness by the love of others, in the first place by parents or those who take their place and, definitively, by God, from whom all true love proceeds and in whose love alone does man discover to what extent he is loved. Here we find the root of the educative power of Christianity: “Humanity is loved by God! This very simple yet profound proclamation is owed to humanity by the Church.

FAITH FORMATION CLASSES

Reminder to parents of children in Faith Formation: There will be no classes on Sunday, October 18 or October 25. Enjoy the break!

The word of God is at work in you

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

"The Word became flesh" (Jn 1:14): The Word of God par excellence, the ultimate and definitive Word, is Jesus Christ. His Person, mission and life on earth are intimately united, according to the Father's plan which culminates at Easter. But that plan will not reach its fulfillment until Jesus consigns the Kingdom to the Father (cf. 1 Cor 15:24). He is the Gospel of God to humankind.
